WELCOME DAYS...

Welcome, Welcome, Welcome! Welcome one and all to a day of fun filled activities. Everyone in the school turned up to see what there was and what was happening. Many people took part in the games; games such as musical chairs, sour gumball chew, and the infamous weenie-bob.

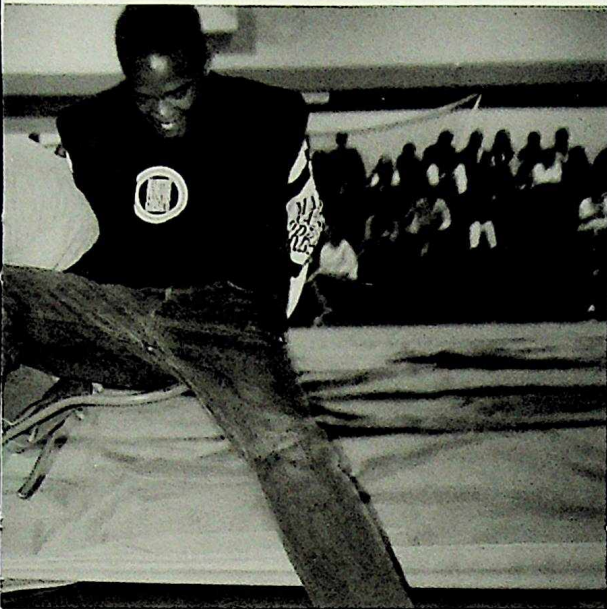

Those of you who participated in the events had a great time. Even the teachers took part in the festivities. Ask Mr. Soltykewych about the weenie bob I'm sure he has mouth full to tell you. Welcome Days is another event that the Leadership class hosted. There were prizes to be won. In some events the prizes consisted of money - up to twenty dollars. To all participants, you did a job well done and by the way, good luck getting the jello out of your hair! PARTY HARDY EVERYONE!!!

Who would have thought it would amount to this of all things, come on boys don't start fighting over a silly chair. Some of the things that boys will do now a days to impress the ladies!

Above: Gee Amanda is that gumball good? Or is it a little bit sour, after all this is a SOUR GUMBALL CHEW!!
Below: Craig Litke sports the latest in lunch crazes a hot dog doused in jello. Are you planning on sharing?

Above: Now, now boys first come, first serve - no need to fight. Although they do look kind of cute showing such grace and determination to win.

Costume winners: Eric Granholm, Dwight Wilkins, Brett Longacre

CHUG, CHUG, CHUG, who will be the winner of the mellow-yellow chug a lug contest?

Doesn't that weiner in there look good Mr. Magee? Dive in!

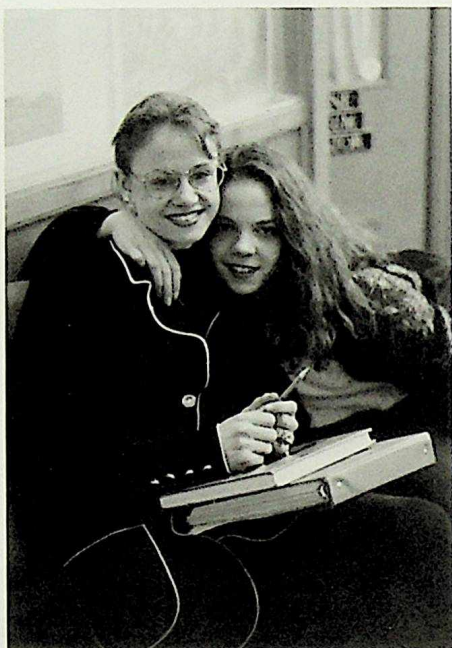

Gee Mr. Salty...whatever was that fun? It must have been - look at the expression on your face and that jacket - its really you!

The people here are having fun. Working hard, playing lots, missing a few classes even, but most of all, having fun.

The good times

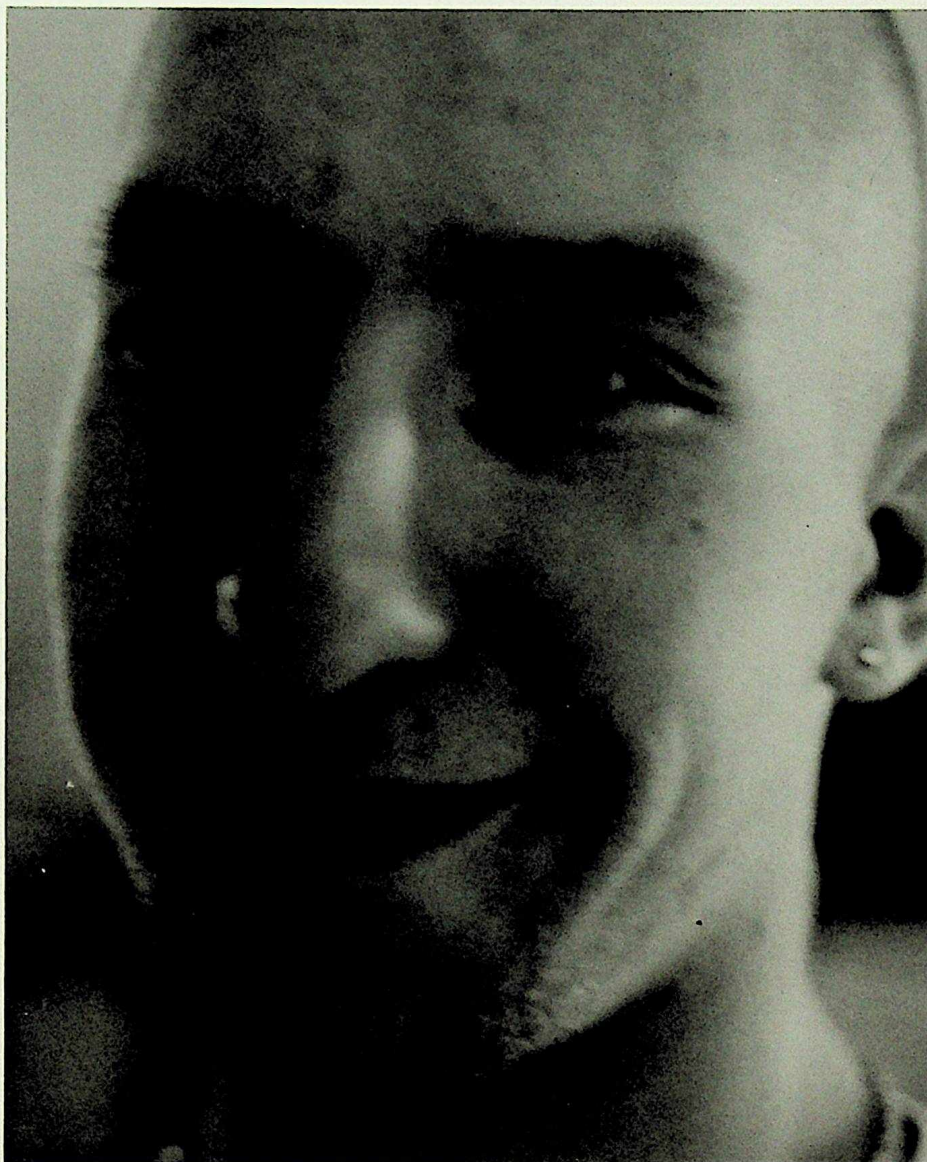

Bryan Henschel, Ken Villard, Someone, and David Sorenson. Having a good time in the halls...hey you guys get to class.

Sonia Smith and Becki O'hern, if they look like they are having fun now you should see them 20 feet in the air.

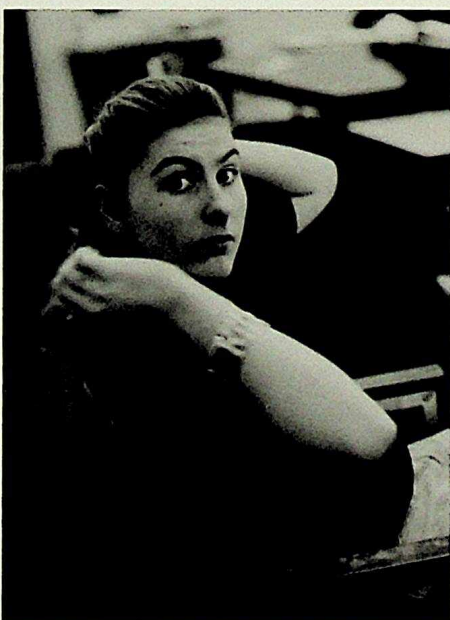

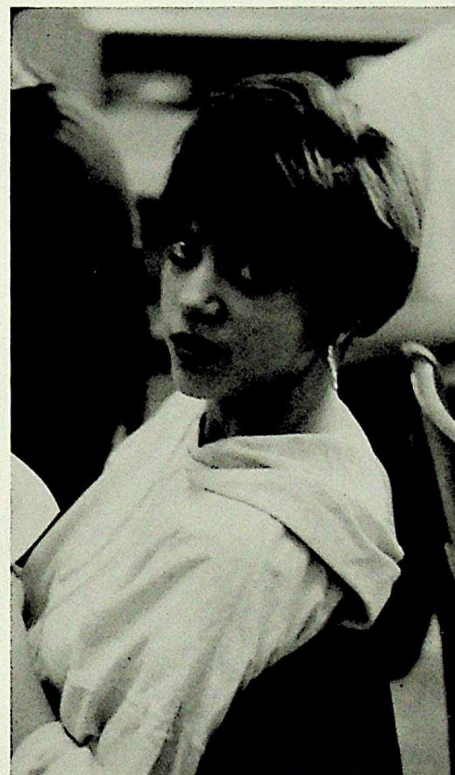

Karla Craner lifts her faint eyebrows in wonder, as if to say... "Will they spell my name right this year?" We did!

Peter Myshak, another famous face in the home of the Lancers! Look real close, he has more hair on his chin than his scalp.

Caught you Carrie Doiron! You're supposed to be working, what are you looking over here for?

Don't worry, your hair looks fine! But, hey, you better not let Mr. King find you sitting at his desk.

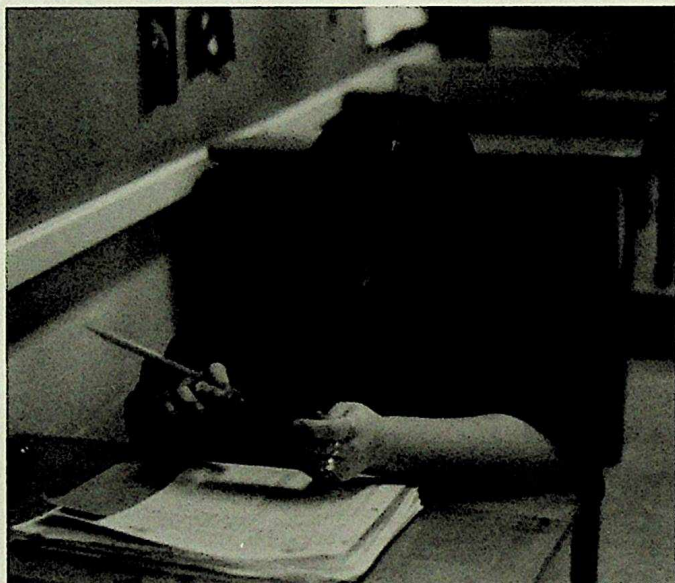

Jen Keroack and Jeff Mooney. They do have the same nose, surely that's a good sign...maybe it will last. Who knows?

More of the Good Times at Doon

Below, Diana Hansen in the library, a place of much work and only a little time to smell the flowers.

Right, Paul Drouillard, clean shaven on both the top and bottom of his head.

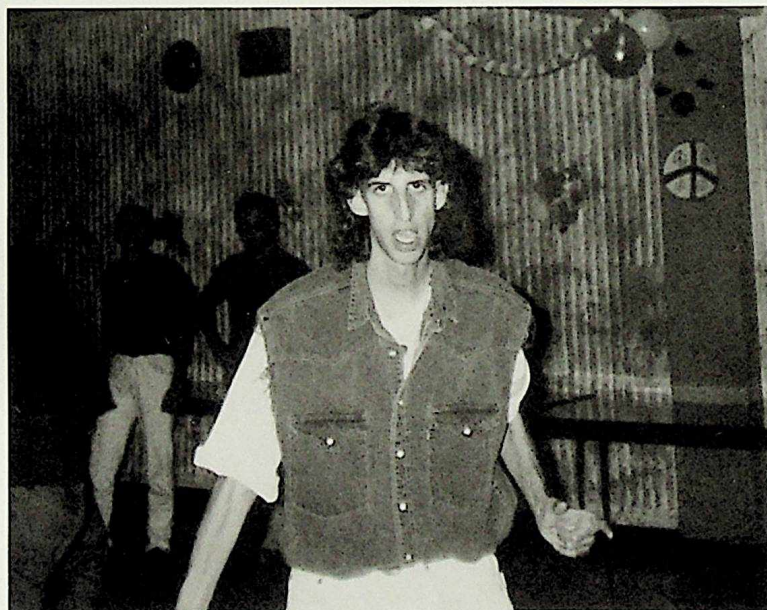

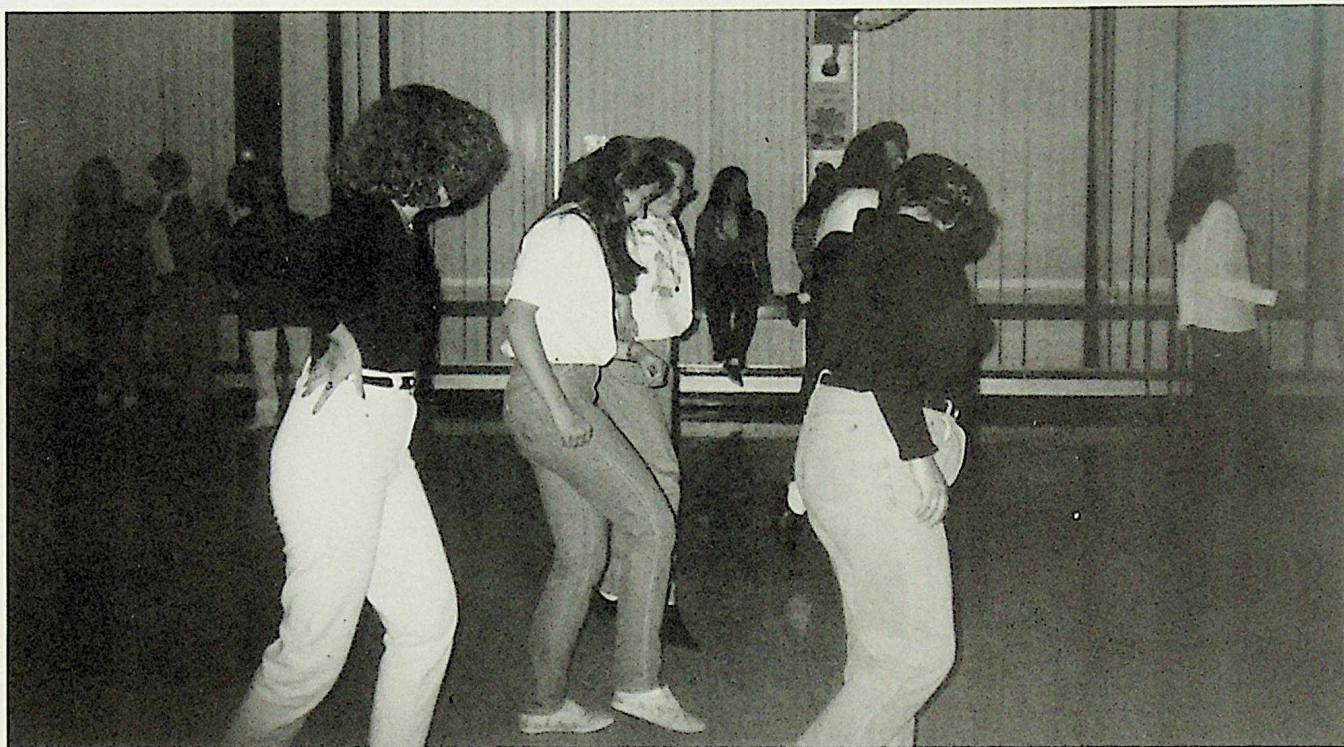

Left - I spy, with my little eye...Jeremy Schmidt. And isn't that Kim Oak's hand? Nice set of shades ya got there Jeremiah.

Below, Dow Hocken working away diligently at his science work. Keep smiling. Dowser.

There's Bryan Henschel and Trevor Johnson trying to give each other great shocks of static.

A Blast from the Past

Above centre: Doing the Boot Scootin' Boogie! Bottom centre: Shake that Booty Dave Chitze!

Centre: This group of dancers sure look like they are having fun. Adam Thomas in the centre, Chris Melquist is at right.

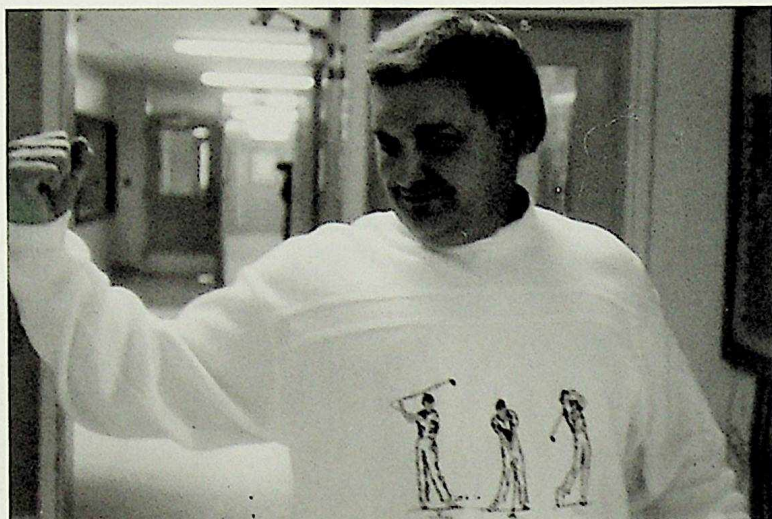

This year's dance was a Blast from the Past and it was a great success. The event was hosted by the leadership class. The music was selected to appeal to everyone - some old rock and the best tunes right now. Prizes were awarded to the dancers. Staff and students had a great time and the people we talked to are planning to attend next year's dance too. Perhaps then, it will be a Blast in the Future! Be there.

Top: Ms. Ditlof and Derek are getting really good at this two step stuff - wait until you see them on the Line Dance page. Bottom: Hey Sean, this is a dance, not a slumber party! Right Pam Scheetz and Lisa Walline having a Blast (you could say).

A Message to students

from the principal:

On behalf of the staff and students I would like to thank the members of the yearbook committee and their advisors for their hard work and effort in providing a yearbook that will provide a lasting memory of your years at Bonnie Doon. To those of you who are graduating, I wish you all the best in whatever you strive to do.

Things may be very difficult at times in the future. You may have to alter your expectations and refocus in other directions, but you do have a solid education from which to start and you can succeed if you are willing to work hard.

Students returning to Bonnie Doon in the fall will see a number of changes as we embark in a new direction. These changes will be very exciting and you will be here to see the beginnings of an entirely new focus in education. I hope that you will take advantage of many of the new opportunities that will be presented to you. I would like to thank all students for their commitment and effort to achieve the highest level in life that you can. You should be very proud of all your efforts.

The best for each in the future,
Ken Brice, Principal

from the vice-principal:

It is already tomorrow. Time, which never stops on its journey, will pass before your eyes and in only a few short moments you will be members of the community looking back on the years you spent at Bonnie Doon High School. When you do, the photos, facts, and the faces of best friends as well as the many memories of your years at Bonnie Doon High School will fill your minds with all the good times you had. This book will be your stepping stone to a happy reminiscence. May your memories of Bonnie Doon be pleasant ones, and may your future be filled with happiness and success.

Every wish for a bright future,
Rick Bjarnason, Assist. Principal

Staff members

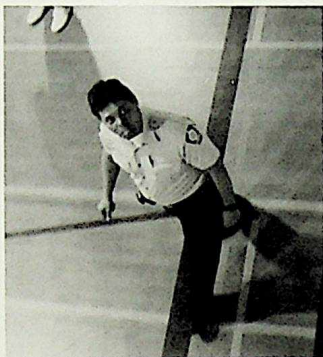

Dedicated Professionals

That's what they want the students to be, but can you believe these people?

To the right is the exuberant and enthusiastic leader of the Humanities department - Ms. Crawford Young. Keep smiling Mrs. C.Y.

Look how small! That's the teeny weeny Constable John representing our city's finest. He's actually much bigger in person. So is his tongue.

Below is Mrs. Greenhalgh, commonly known as Mrs. G. With all the work she has to do in the library it's a wonder she has time to be sniffing flowers.

Can you believe this guy? And they say Caesar fiddled while Rome burned. That's the inextinguishable (ha) Larry D. cranking out a rollicking good math tune on his ... accordion? Why all the empty desks Larry?

June's baseball team - the first in years to have a winning record. Team members and the senior (!) cheer leaders who came by to support them.

Mr. Yin Lau, Bonnie Doon's Art, Drafting, Japanese, and Chinese teacher of the last decade. Mr. Lau retired this year, or at least he stopped teaching. He plans to continue to work in architecture. Good luck in the future Mr. Lau.

An Evening of Fashion

This year's fashion show, sponsored by Leadership Class, was a huge success. All the participants had a great time modelling beautiful clothes in front of nearly 100 people. The fashion decor was filled with items for all occasions. Items modelled were from Wedding attire and wedding night wear to ski clothes. A special thank you to all the ushers and volunteers for all their help. THEY LOOKED GREAT!

Leadership - the class that takes you to the top at Doon...

...and then keeps on going and going and going and going.

Bonnie Doon's new Leadership 20/30 program is designed to strengthen students' leadership abilities. The class organized events such as Welcome Days, the Fashion Show, Higher Ground Multi-Media presentation, The Blast From the Past dance, and numerous invitational tournaments which were all great successes. The leadership class is an exciting alternative for students. Students and the school will benefit from this new course.

Top: Murray Smith demonstrates how to climb on a climbing wall. Hey Murray - are you afraid of heights? Well, if you are, DON'T LOOK DOWN! Bottom: It's okay Mr. Gardner, it's not as high as you think, only a mere thirty five feet! That's Amber Kerr in the cute little crash helmet.

Mr. Ulrich's popular

Karate-do Club

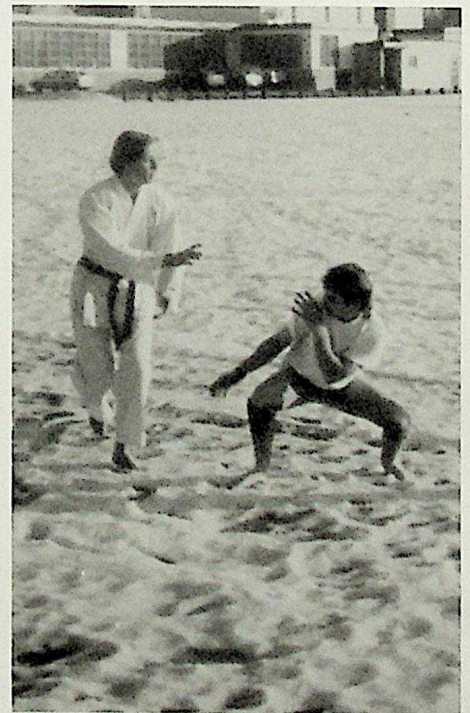

Six Rules of Karate-Do. Six principles laid down by Gichin Funakoshi, the strict observance of which is absolutely essential to achieve an understanding of karate-do. Funakoshi spoke of six rules in his original writings Karate-do: My Way of Life.

1. Take your training seriously. Consider it a life-long project.
2. Train with both the mind and the heart.
3. Remember: You are a worthwhile person who deserves happiness and security. No one has the right to take these things from you. This is the basis of all self-defense strategies.
4. Avoid self-conceit and dogmatism.
5. Develop self-understanding and try to adopt what is meritorious in the efforts of others.
6. Maintain a high ethical code in public and in private life.

Many students in the karate club return even after graduating. Shown here are Craig Sagert, Aaron Hartwig, and Suzanne Juchem

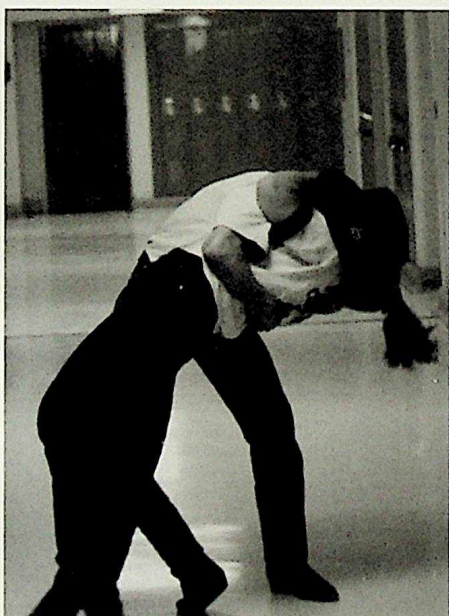

An annual event for club members is the day in the snow.

The Line Dance Club showed their stuff at our annual open house. Many visitors joined in the fun.

A rip-snortin' trio - Miss Ditlof, J. Deacon, and L. Shier. Looking good!

J. Deacon and T. Ouellette are practicing the famous cowbody dip. (This one requires no chips).

Club members are: D. Ouellette, L. Sharp, Miss Ditlof, R. Labrash, J. Deacon, and L. Shier. T. Ouellette and R. Gladue were unavailable for the photo.

MORE OF THE KIDS IN THE HALL AT BONNIE DOON HIGH SCHOOL

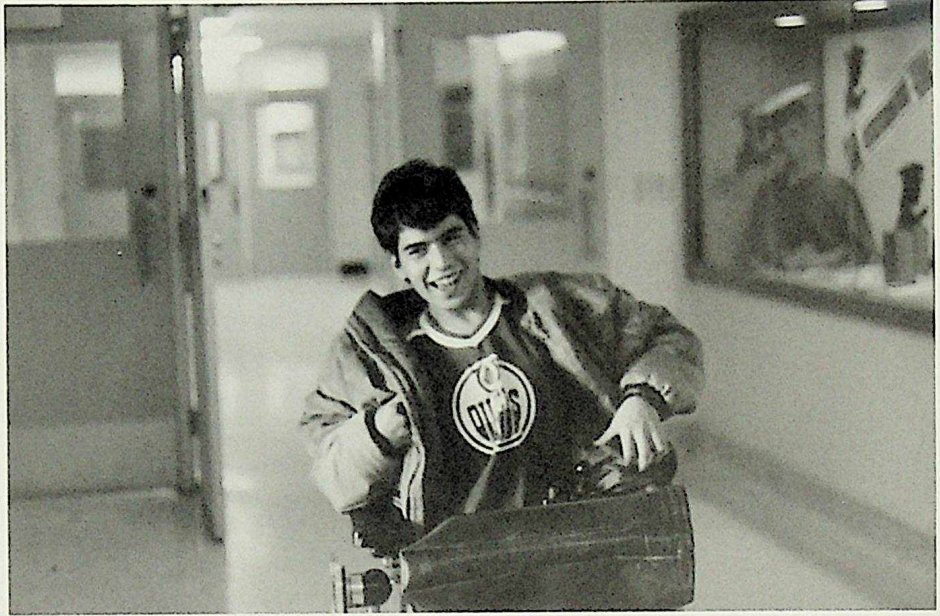

The students in the D.M.H. program benefitted from an innovative approach this year that had them involved in many activities in and out of school.

D. M. H. Students

For the 1993-94 school year the Dependent Multiple Handicap Program consisted of 16 students and 7 staff. The students were involved in a number of fund raising activities to support a Christmas luncheon and various community outings.

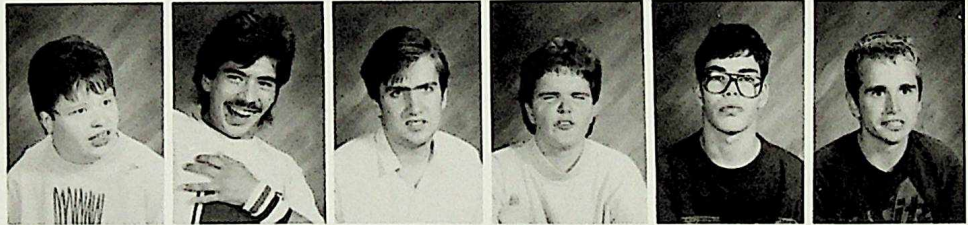

The DMH students went shopping for Christmas gifts at West Edmonton Mall, attended an IMAX film at the Space Science Centre and visited the Reynolds Alberta Museum in Wetaskiwin.

Students from the DMH program made sure the school pop machines were always filled and assisted with the cafeteria cleanup following the lunch period. We look forward to another successful school year beginning next fall.

Here's Rob Gladue in a typical pose. The man always has a smile on his face. And, of course, it is common to see him out rolling around the halls flashing that smile at all of the ladies. Thumbs up Rob!

Sports and Activities

The Junior Basketball Teams, Boys and Girls, put on a real show this year.

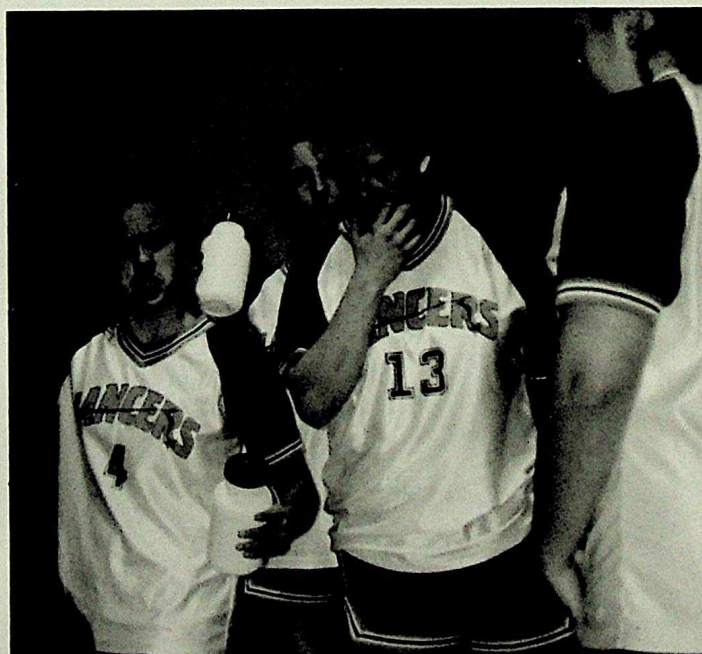

Junior Basketball

Team members were:
Back: Tobl M., Liz S.,
Mary B. Front: Suzie
J., Raena U. Missing:
Korrena M., Margaret
S., Neilu R., Ria D.,
Sam G., Bobbie-Jo T..
(manager), and Ms.
Djogovic (coach).

Come on Tobl! the object of the game is to shoot the ball, not just hold it!

Liz Sylvester goes for the gold. She shoots, and scores!

Hey Susie! Concentrate on what your coach is

While Jody Wilkins works on recovering the rebound as Manuel Caceres comes back down to earth. That's quite the leap! The boys are playing Stony Plain in this photo.

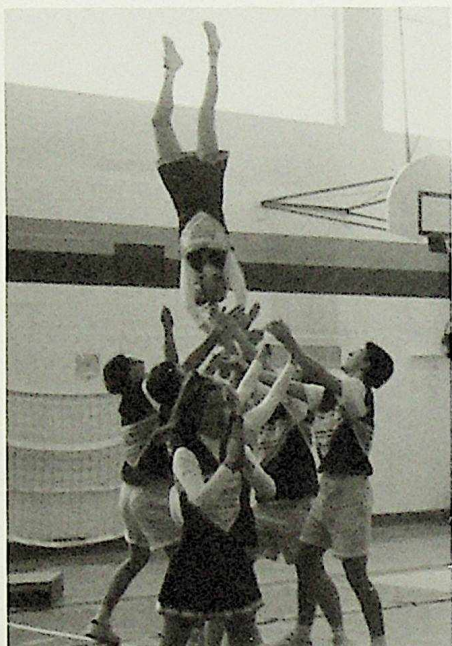

Down by 5 with 3:16 left to go. The pressure is on - time for a little chat with coach Magee.

After only two seasons in existence they placed 3rd in the cities, they are the Bonnie Doon

Cheer Team

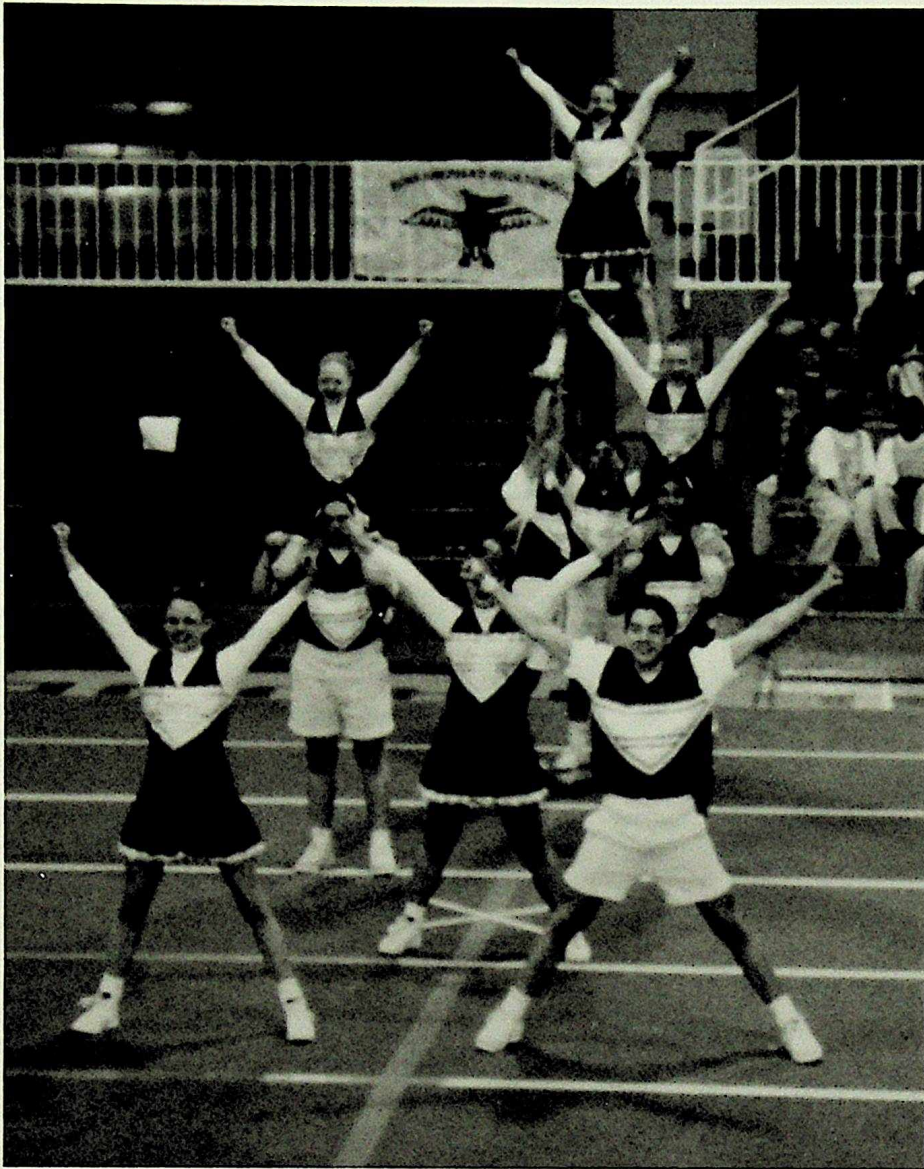

Back row (l to r): B. Match, J. Mussack, P.
Myshak, C. Davis, D. Niquet, M. Clarke, C.
Graham, B. O'hem, T. Simpson, T. Hauff, L.
May, J. Kemp, and S. Smith.

Whoa! The team in final practice before heading to the city championships (where they placed 3 in the co-ed division).

Our team with their teacher-sponsor, the one and only Miss Ditlof. Taking a break from practice in preparation for the city championships.

Our team in one of their daring stunts in the City finals. The team placed 3rd.

Looks like the team is getting ready to do exciting stuff. I wonder what it could be?

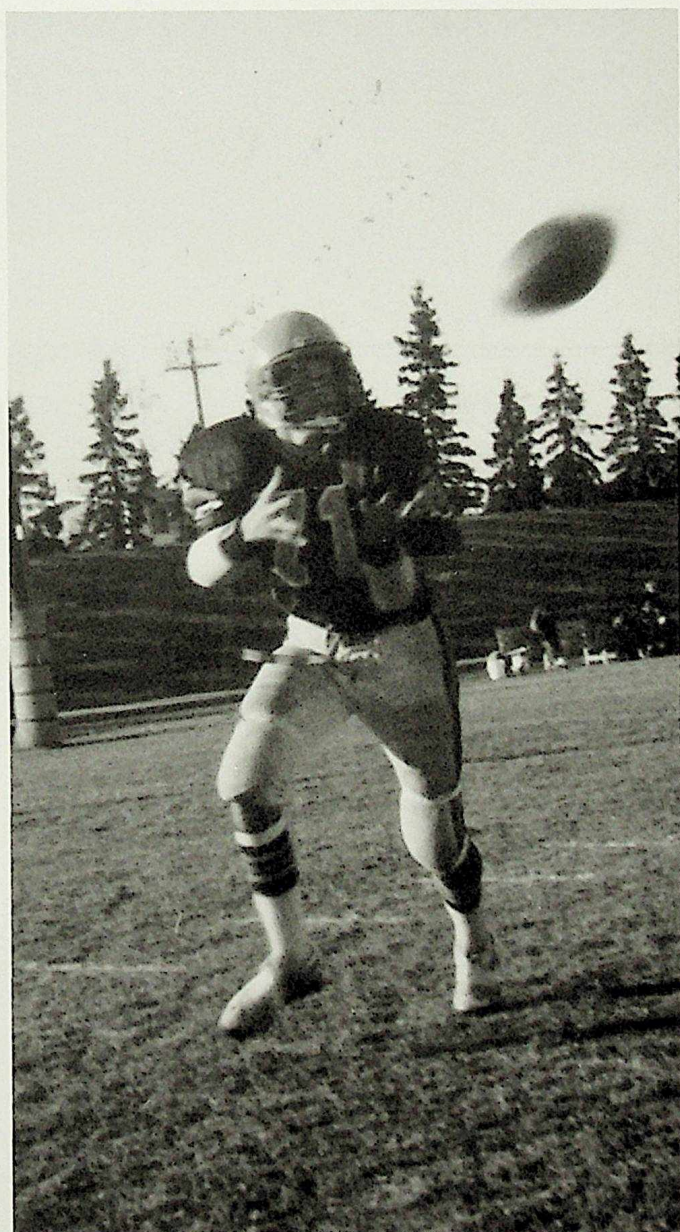

Another famous stunt during the competition. Go team go!!

Here's the team strategy guys - listen up. We're picking the Eskimos to win by 6 in the Sports Select - any questions?

Hey, we said go long, but that's taking it a little bit too far - get back on the field!

There's Shaun Millard and Ben Match looking a little chilly in the pre-game warm up (or should that be cool down?)

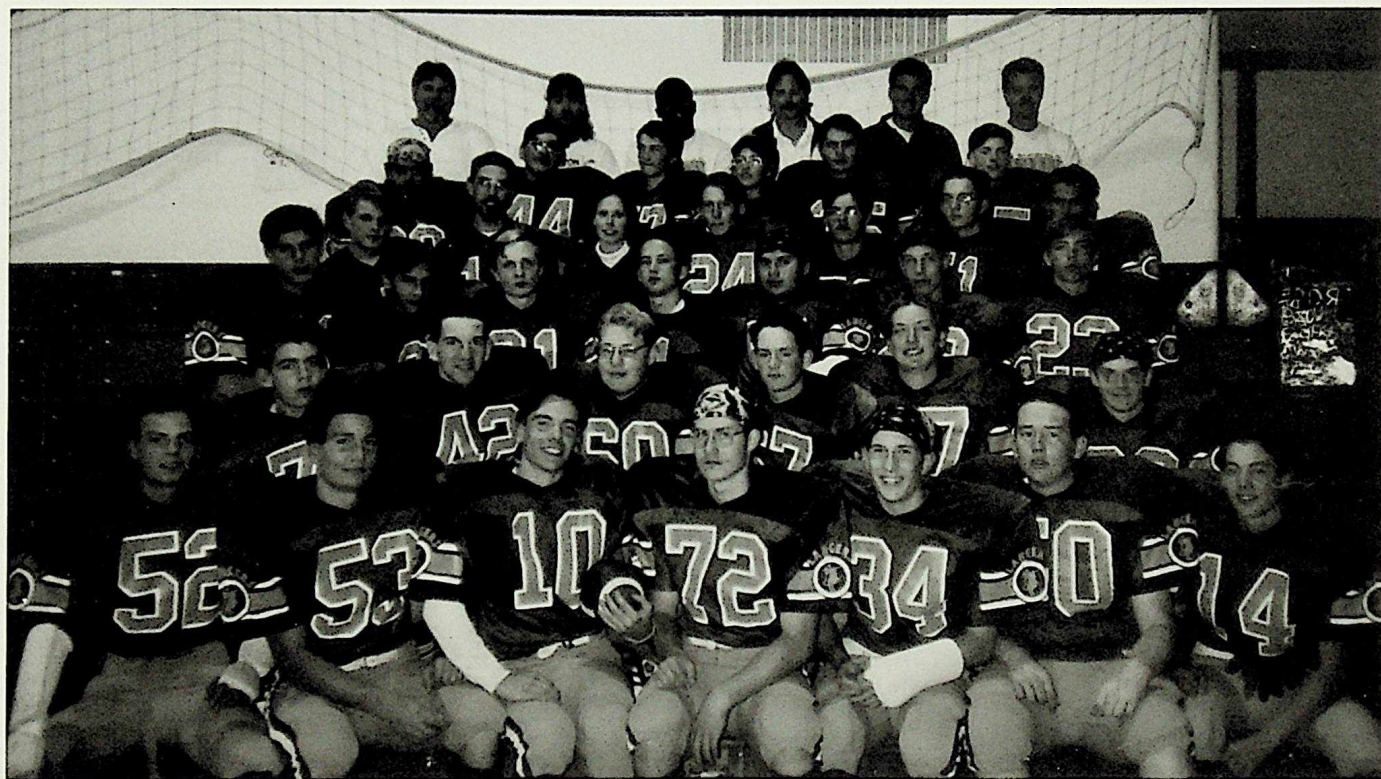

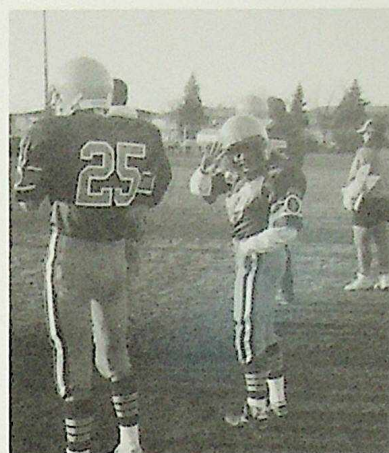

Another sensational completion, too bad it was only in the practice and not the game.

Football Lancers

making the competition look small

Lead by quarterback Kevin Nanson and the veteran coaching of Mr. Smarsh, the football team is developing into a real contender. Watch out next year!

Hey there you ought to be listening to the coach, not hamming it up for the camera.

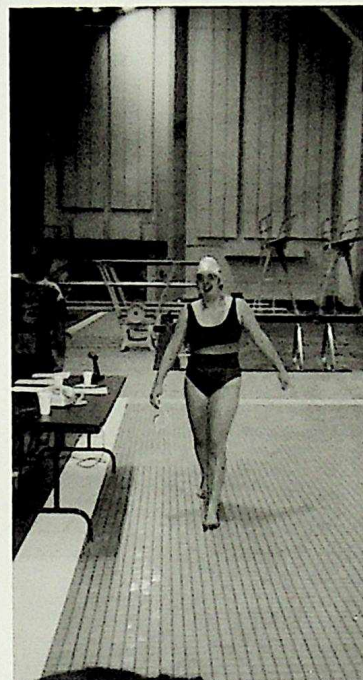

Here is the team, one that year in and year out attracts a large portion of the male student body.

59...46...21...Hutt...Hutt! Go team go!

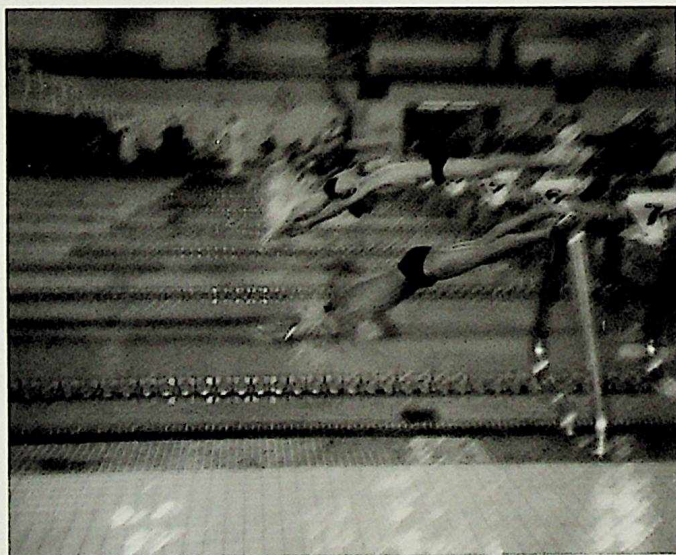

The Swim Team

Someone help me get this thing off of my head!

And they're off, the crowd goes wild!! It's a race against time. The men are fighting for the title of number one. Who do you think the winner is going to be? I hope it is someone from B. D.!!

The swim team culminated an extremely successful season on January 10th, when 12 swimmers qualified for city final competition. The team members are to be gratulated on their very hard and committed effort which saw each and every member improve tremendously. Congratulations go out to Michelle Bird, Carrie Brooks, Amanda Giesbrecht, Jennifer Hoefle, Tammy Lysenko, Brad Missal, Yuichi Otaki, Derek Ouellette, Christine Schneider, Laura Sharp, Nichole Stadyk, and Tina Stevens. A very special thank you to Ardelle Giesbrecht who acted as the team manager and coordinated the timers. GOOD JOB!!

Rugby, a sport for those who look good in a cast

This year's rugby team made an appearance in the city semifinals due to the hardwork and dedication of these solid players: back row (l to r) M. Bayrack, P. Daly, M. Nickel, S. Phillips, J. Wilkins, P. Myshak, D. Stuffco, B. Match, D. Niquet, J. Stangle, and coach Heffel. Front row (l to r) B. Henschel, T. Chen, R. Sharp, K. Franklin, K. Nanson, M. Clarke, C. Davis. Missing are: K. Villard, B. Dournbos, D. Auger, B. Missal, D. Idzan and coach Berhdahl.

Jr. Girls Soccer

Diana Hansen played in goal this year. Here she is in action.

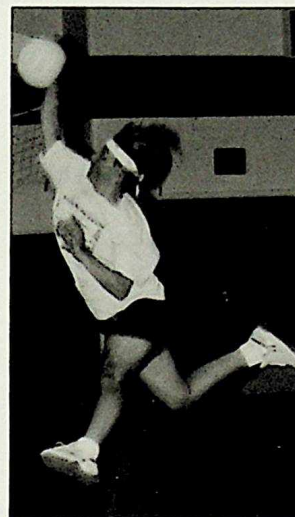

Aika is ready to let on fly into Wagner's net. This is before Aika broke her collar bone

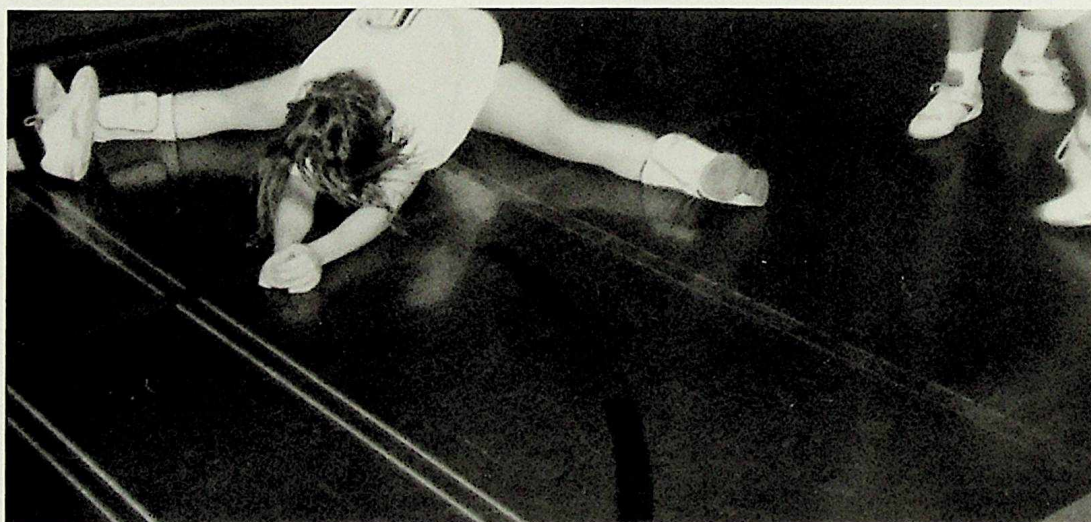

Jr. Girls Volleyball

The junior girls volleyball team came on strong by winning the Early Bird and the Queen Elizabeth tournaments and playing well in tournaments in Grand Centre and Beaumont. A regular season record of 7 -5 put them in the premier division playoffs, where they lost to the Titans. They showed great intensity.

Alexis goes for a spike.

I've got it!

Below: Help, I've fallen and I can't get up! Or is that Shellie's pre-game stretch?

It's the ever-popular, 3rd annual, mountain bicycle trip

Jasper to Lake Louise

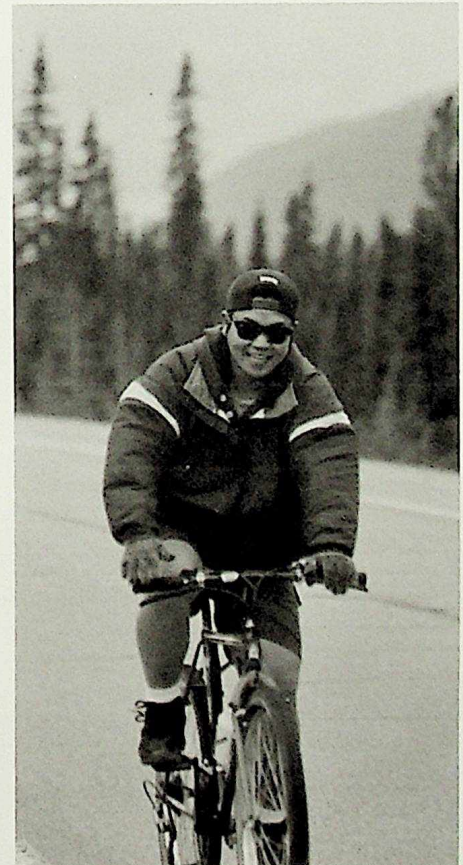

Ah! There is nothing like skipping school for a day and pedalling through some fine mountain scenery instead. Ten hard pedalling students rolled their way from Jasper to Banff in the middle of May. They were (l to r) Wayne L., Angie D., Kevin N., Scott R., Carrie B., Dan D., Mr W., Ashley K., Irene D., Lei J., Justin Y., and Thomson C.

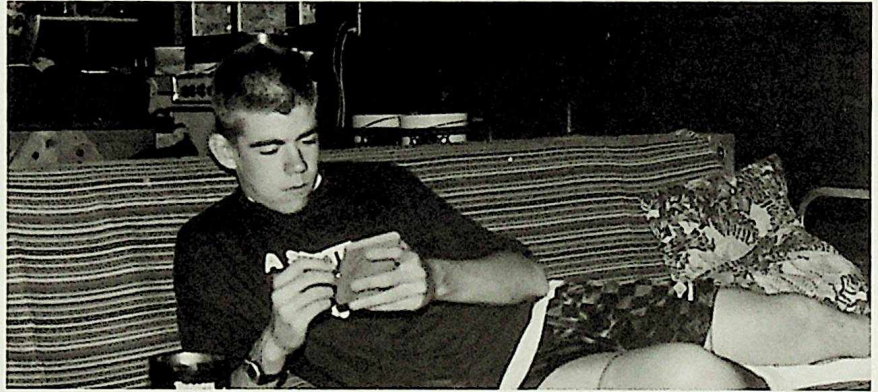

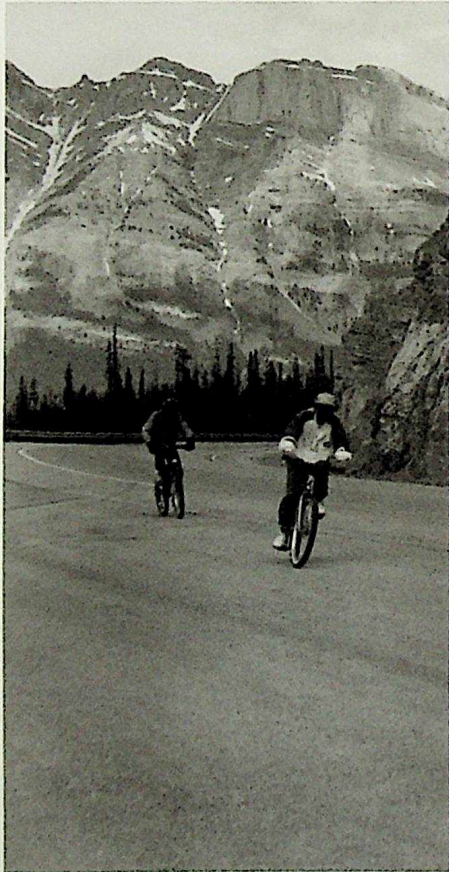

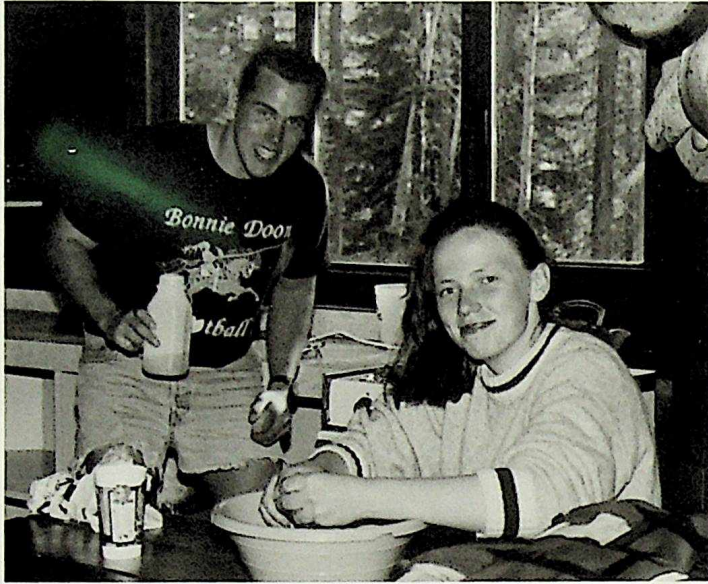

It was a little cramped on the bus ride up to the park, but that just made everyone a little friendlier.

Thomson Chen having a great time on a straight away...that smile must mean he doesn't know what's up ahead.

Ashley and Carrie are still smiling after the first day on the road.

The snow slowed us down a bit. Just a bit. Kevin, Dan and Scott are heading to the bus.

Dan Dokken recovers from day one in the comfortable Athabasca Falls Hostel

Lei and Wayne enjoy the down side of a lengthy hill after a long climb up.

Thankfully this fellow was seen from the safety of the bus and not the bicycle seat.

Bonnie Doon's Outdoor Education Class

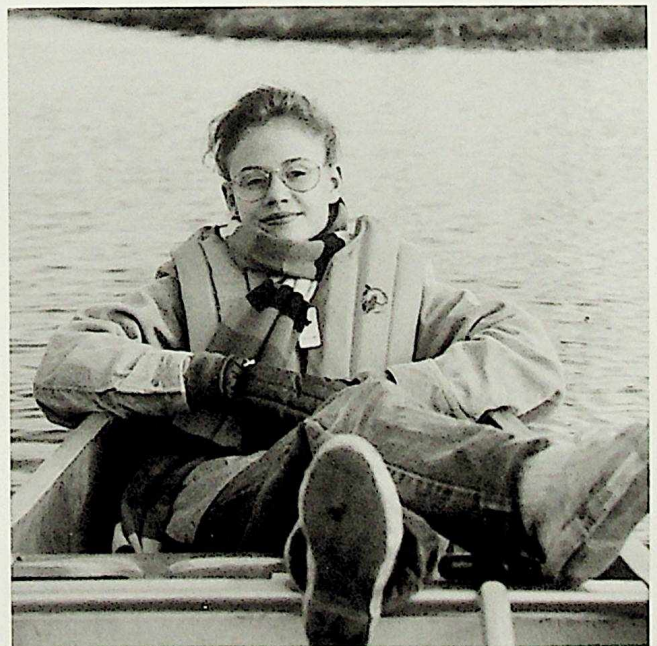

The voyageurs about to embark on an afternoon paddle at Hawrelak park.

Good mornin Korrena! Did you have a nice sleep? I hope it wasn't too cold for yah and the bugs weren't too bad.

The three musketeers all cuddled up in the humble living environment. Looks like fun under that lean-to.

Hey there Becki O'hern this is outdoor living, not outdoor snoozing - shouldn't you be paddling that canoe?

Without the help of my friends I'd still be sittin' on my butt back in grade 10. Thanks to AU, LR, SN, CW, RD, DM, JL, TM, KC, KP and too many more to name. Special thanks to SM, if it weren't for him I probably would have lost all my hair and axed the teachers! He's saved many lives. Love you all.

It is a shame Kurt is dead, but his music will always pump through my veins. As will the memories of the last three years. It's a pleasure to be in Bonnie Doon and to know all of you. I was shocked to know that I would be the valedictorian for 1994, but I got through that, and I enjoyed every minute of it. Thank you to all of you for your support. I wish you all the best in your future endeavors and see you around!

Brett Longacre

Canadian high school has been a lot of fun for me. Its very different to the one back in England as you are more independent. The year has gone so fast, you'd think I'd be glad to be out of school, but I'll miss this place, and one person in particular (J). All in all, being at Bonnie Doon was sound!

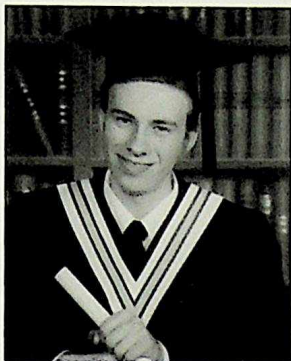

Laura Sharp
Grade 12 will be in my memories for a lifetime. Thanks to my teachers: Chuk, Mr. Ego. I will never forget leadership, soccer and, of course, the swim team. Thanks dad and mom for your love and support. I will remember all my friends and the good times: JK, LS, JD, KN, and my buddy Dan!

Do not walk in front of me;
I might not follow.
Do not walk behind me;
I might not lead.
Walk beside me;
And be my friend.

I must say the years have been enlightening. We have been through many endearing moments, both good and bad. I would like to thank everyone for the times, but especially Sale, who, after years, is closer to me than a sister could ever be. Also thanks Frosty and Mr. Vanity for putting up with me. Love you all.

"She who is not busy living is busy dying."

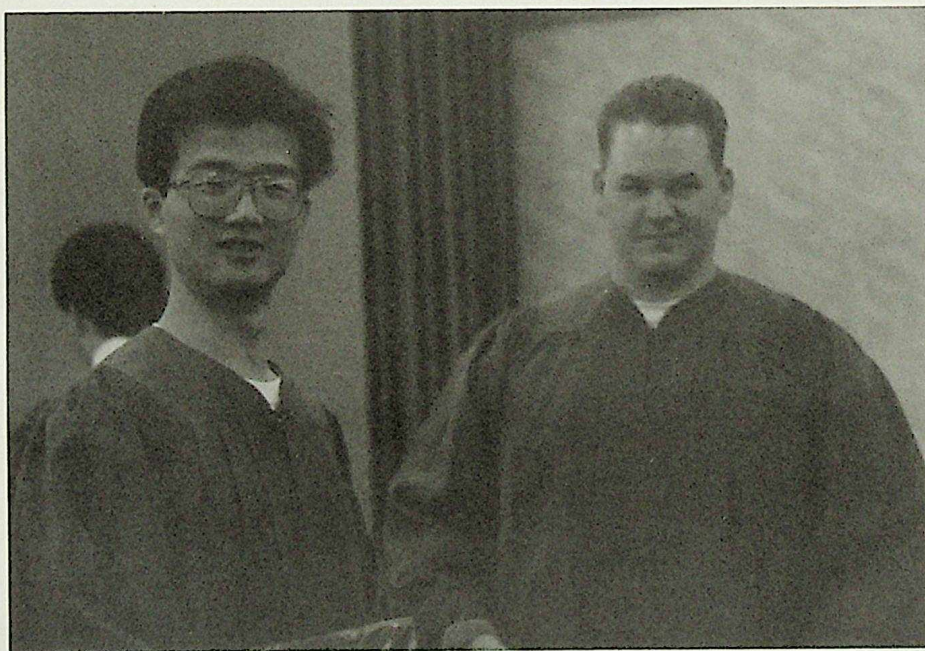

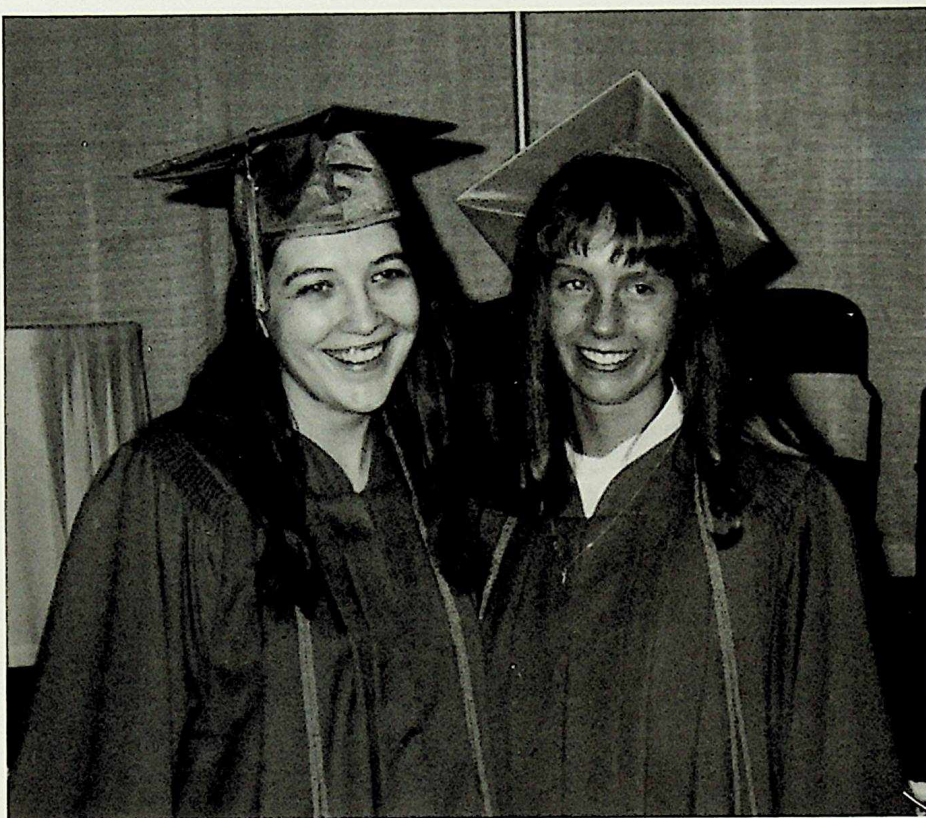

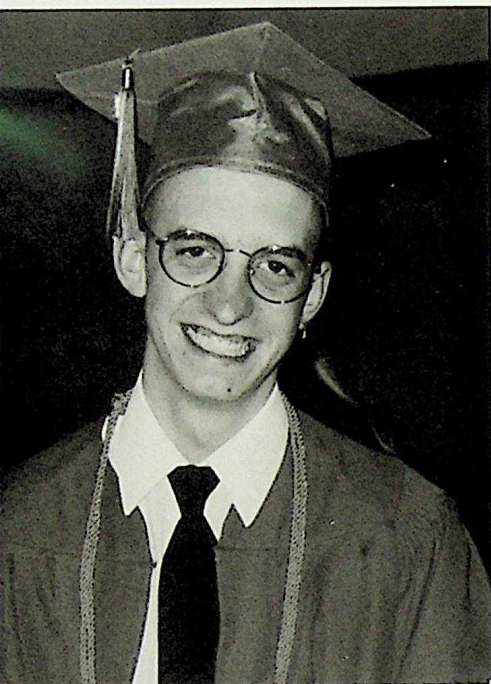

My advice is to try and experience 5 years in every minute. Thank you to all the friends, staff and especially the teachers (Action, Mr. G, Mr. S, the Mr. B's, Chuk, Mrs. C-Y, and Mom) who have helped me accomplish the beginning of many dreams!

Below are the very pleased Nicole S., and Andrea B. Nicole had car troubles and nearly missed the event - arriving only seconds before the graduates were to walk out.

Boy, doesn't Dow H. look like a happy graduate! I betcha that everyone was happy to have finally finished their schooling.

Feng G. and Derek M. are looking a little nervous. Don't sweat it guys - you just walk across the stage and get your certificate - provided you don't trip that is.

At right is Alison Neuman, looking very sharp in her mortar board.

Kori Janisse and her handsome date at the banquet, boy they sure make a cute couple. Everyone looked spectacular on this special night.

Graduation

Another milestone in the years of growing up. The memory of this night will surely be cherished for many years to come.

Valedictory Address

by Rena Guang-rui Liu

So this is the Day! We've finally made it! Twelve years of our educational journey; with so much sweat, tears, effort, and joy along the way, we've finally made it! Now it is the time to say "adieu" to our youth, and welcome the awesome quest of adulthood. This evening symbolizes our step into the future. A future with many wonders; a future filled with inspiring promises, exciting adventures, and endless possibilities.

As I look back upon the past few years, I realize how much high school has influenced my life, my way of perceiving the world. I'm sure this is true for every graduate here today. What we have learned in school is far more than some scientific formulas, biological terms, or essay-writing skills. We learned to develop our own perspective, to take pride in ourselves, our work, and our ability.

Bonnie Doon has always been like a home to me. I must thank all the teachers and the principal, for their generosity, kindness, and helpfulness deeply impressed me on the very first day I stepped into the school. We must also thank the teachers because we are here today. We couldn't have made it without their encouragement to excel, so that tomorrow we can try to change those things that we could not change before.

I would like to thank our parents for giving us the opportunity to experience life; for teaching us to see the negative aspects of the world for what they are, and showing us the positive; for guiding us along and giving us hope. Thank you for teaching us to accept life with open arms and welcome every experience good or bad. In giving us life, you have given us the chance to live every new discovery, every new day; the chance to become what we want to be.

The future looms ahead of us. A future which presents us with many unknowns. But one fact is certain - whether we are going to attend university, college, proceed right into the work force, or back to high school, nothing will change what we have accomplished today. Whatever we do, tomorrow lies in our hands. But let us not be afraid of the weighty responsibilities; what's waiting for us will be the most splendid period in our lifetime. So let us join hands spiritually and "boldly go where no one has gone before."

I would like to finish with a little poem called "Never Give Up" by an unknown author:

Never give up hoping, there's nothing to be lost.
Never give up trying, however great the cost.
Never give up climbing, though the clouds obscure the view.
Never give up striving, your purpose is to pursue.
Never give up trusting the hand of Providence to lead you through the mazes of everyday events.
Never give up saying that all is well with you.

My dear friends, Good-bye and Good Luck!

The drama classes' special production that stole the audience's hearts...

Thieves Carnival

The drama classes ended the year with an exciting production of the play "Thieves Carnival" by Jean Anouilh. This was a hilarious farce about a group of pickpockets disguised as Spanish nobles. Students got a taste of many aspects of showbiz including set construction, costuming, makeup, and even acting!
